THE TEMPLAR HERITAGE TRUST
REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES
FOR THE PERIOD 6 March 2023 to 31 March 2024

The Trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the period 6 March 2023 to 31 March 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charitable objects of the Templar Heritage Trust (the THT) are:

(1) To advance the education of the public by providing:

- (a) grants for and assistance with historical and archaeological research into the Templars, the Crusades, monastic and chivalric orders, and associated subjects; and
- (b) information (including without limitation lectures, information boards, literature, and website information) about the matters described in (a) above.

(2) To advance the education of the public by providing grants for the training in the crafts of historic building restoration or conservation, primarily for the benefit of young, unemployed, or disadvantaged persons or persons who would not otherwise be able to afford such training

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

During the reporting period, the charity has:

- initiated a website under the name: www.thetemplarheritagetrust.org.uk;
- published the first of a planned series of educational leaflets, "The Knights Templar & their Preceptories", on the website;
- commenced a project to take photographs of, and to gather information on, sites and buildings connected with the medieval Order of Knights Templar that can be visited by the general public, with a view to placing this information on the THT website; and
- donated £870 to the University of Leeds, to fund 3 THT Bursaries for graduate students and early career academics to attend and present research at the annual International Medieval Congress organised by the University's Institute for Medieval Studies.

In carrying out these activities, the THT Trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission for England and Wales on public benefit.

In addition, the charity has:

- opened a CAF Cash Account with CAF Bank, the banking arm of the Charities Aid Foundation;
- registered as a charity with HM Revenue & Customs;
- taken out membership of the National Council for Voluntary Organisations (NCVO); and
- approached 2 professors of medieval history at British universities, who have agreed to act as academic advisors to the charity.

With regard to public benefit, the Trustees have noted that:

- the information provided by the charity on the THT website is intentionally accessible to the general public;
- the 3 THT Bursaries, referred to in section 1 above, enable graduate students and early career academics to attend, and to present research to, the International Medieval Congress (IMC) which draws medievalist academics from over 60 countries, includes presentations of more than 2,000 individual papers as well as public concerts, performances, excursions, and bookfairs, and is Europe's largest forum for sharing ideas in medieval studies; and
- information on the THT Bursaries is included in the IMC Programme Book that is publicly accessible on the University of Leeds website.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

At the end of the period on 31 March 2024, the charity's balance sheet showed total funds of £10,754.

The income included a donation of £6,383 from the Charities Aid Foundation, which represented funds that had been accumulated by the Templar Heritage Trust during the period when the THT was operating as part of the Charities Aid Foundation (registered charity number: 268369).

During the reporting period, the charity received income from donations and investments of £11,699 and donated £870 to the University of Leeds, to fund 3 THT Bursaries for graduate students and early career academics to attend and present research at the annual International Medieval Congress organised by the University's Institute for Medieval Studies.

In view of the level of funds available to the charity, and its limited ongoing costs, the Trustees are confident that Templar Heritage Trust is a going concern.

Reserves policy

The THT has no employees and does not own or rent any premises, so the Trustees consider that the charity's reserves currently only need to cover regular website maintenance and a limited provision for administrative costs. At the end of the period under review, the Trustees therefore estimate that reserves of £1,500 are sufficient. The THT's funds, including the reserves, are held in a readily realisable form in the charity's CAF Cash Account with CAF Bank.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, which is a foundation-type charity incorporated organisation (CIO) constitution, that was adopted by the charity's 4 first Trustees on 1 March 2023.

The Templar Heritage Trust was registered as a foundation CIO by the Charity Commission for England and Wales on 6 March 2023, under registered charity number: 1202183.

The first four THT Trustees are named in Clause 9(4) of the charity's constitution. No additional Trustees have been recruited during the reporting period.

Further Trustees can be appointed by a resolution passed at a properly constituted meeting of the THT Board of Trustees in accordance with Clause 10.1 of the charity's constitution.

In accordance with Clause 10.2 of the charity's constitution, the policy of the THT is to select Trustees with relevant skills, knowledge, and experience to further the work of the charity in accordance with its objects.

The THT Trustees may use their contact network and also trustee recruitment advice and advertisement services provided by such organisations as the NCVO.

The Trustees have initiated the compilation of a THT CIO Governance Handbook, including:

- Board of Trustees' Terms of Reference;
- Grant Making Policy;
- Fundraising & Donations Management Policy.

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of The Templar Heritage Trust (the Trust) for the period 6 March 2023 to 31 March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under Section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by Section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
